

June 14, 2016

NEWS RELEASE

Jeff Mirkes, Executive Director
Downtown Green Bay, Inc. & Olde Main Street, Inc.
P: 920.639.8090
jeffm@downtowngreenbay.com

The Green Bay Mural

Green Bay, WI – Artist Beau Thomas, Wenz Home Furniture and Olde Main Street Inc. (OMSI) will be unveiling The Green Bay Mural on June 16, 2016 at 10:30 a.m. at 620 Main Street (backside of Kuehn Printing facing Main Street).

Artist, Beau Thomas, OMSI Executive Director, Jeff Mirkes, OMSI President, Bill Macier, Wenz Home Furniture Manager, Chris Wenz and Green Bay Mayor Jim Schmitt will be onsite to unveil the largest mural of Olde Main Street's Arts District. The Green Bay Mural will be Green Bay's largest public art pieces spanning 109 feet painted with vibrant colors featuring iconic locations from the community.

The Green Bay Mural is the fourth mural in the "Art on Main" program, a public art program created to enhance the Olde Main Street District and bring art out of the galleries and onto the streets while igniting passion and conversation.

Olde Main Street, Inc. is a nonprofit organization established as a BID in 1998 to provide leadership and management for the revitalization of a 25-face block area along and around Main Street, near downtown Green Bay. For more information about Olde Main Street, Inc. or the "Art on Main" program, please contact Jeff Mirkes at 920.639.8090 or e-mail jeffm@downtowngreenbay.com.

###